Bauple / Theebine Run – Sunday 21st August

Bauple is one of those places members enjoy visiting. It's a decent run for the cars, the BBQ area and facilities are spotless, and the museum staff are welcoming. And they baked a sensational citrus cake for us to have with our coffees! We could very easily have parked it there for the afternoon, but Theebine Hotel and BBQ lunch were waiting. Steaks, sausages and rissoles sizzling on the hot plates, variety of salads, fresh rolls, cold drinks, good service and relaxed company – what more could you ask for? Another picture-perfect winter's day for a run. Thanks Carolyn and the other members up Gympie way for a purr-fect suggestion. On Saturday Garry found himself unable to make this run, so thanks also to Darryl and the others who pitched in.

To all members celebrating their Birthday in September!

Members born in September share their month with Olivia Newton-John, Shane Warne, Dawn Fraser, Ian Chappell
Members born in October share their month with Hugh Jackman, Keith Urban, Paul Hogan, Diane Cilento (born in Mooloolaba)

$2 per ticket 3 for $5, drawn at the end of meeting.

Raffle Winner: Julian won the Chicken & Meat tray at Sept's meeting.

Treasurer's Update: Kym gave an update of the club's financial position

Car Show Update:

We could do with a few more trade stands.

The roster board is up. Put your name in a time slot/against a job or give Darryl a ring.

Raffle - Bunnings has generously donated a BBQ. We are seeking contributions from members for the "hampers" – packets of chips, soft drinks, alcohol, nibbles, car or other knick-knacks etc.

Trophies are ordered

Sponsorships need to be finalised ideally by end of Sept.

Travis has made a good start – thank you.

Working Bee dates - Sat 8th Oct & Sat 15th Oct 8:30am Start morning tea/lunch supplied

Chamber supplied crusher dust to repair the ruts in the grounds. Pony club organised spreading.

Club Run Reports: The run to Bauple Historic Museum went well. We had morning tea and lots of talking. Then onto the Theebine Hotel for a good lunch and more chin wagging.

Club Run: Sept - Gympie Swap & Car Show. No club run in October due to car show.

Club Membership Fees

Thanks to members who have paid their 2022/2023 membership fees. Memberships fees are due 1st July annually and should be paid by 1st September.

Reminder that annual membership of an incorporated club is Dept TMR requirement to be eligible for club rego.

Members Torque:

We had a special Happy Birthday for Alan Kenzler who celebrated a significant milestone.

Giles received the offer of a Rolls for his daughter to leave her wedding reception in style.

Jenny & Rob enjoyed ten days at the Gympie Muster which they are just getting over. Had great time.

Ian & Leslie went to Bundaberg for a Mahjong Tournament. Leslie gave it a good go for her first tournament. They also did the obligatory Bundy Rum tour with no casualties.

John went to Sydney to help his daughter settle back into Australian life. John started with all the right intentions and found a pair of sneakers in his cupboard to wear in the colder weather. All went well until a sole disintegrated at Sydney Airport. He limped to the sidewalk looking like a ruffian and changed into his faithful thongs which he wore the rest of the trip. He arrived home a bit cold with thongs intact. His daughter's driving after spending 6 years in Hong Kong is a story for another time!

Noosa Country Show—Friday 9th Sept

Rain showers on Show Day kept a lot of classics in the garage but everyone who rocked up enjoyed a chat, sharing tall motoring tales, and a wander around the Show. The cars drew attention and interesting comments from Show goers. Thanks to comments on the voting slips, we now know who Brum is and why he was compared to Rob's Dodge! Rob D and Allan made a huge effort to bring 2 Fire Trucks and 3 cars. Special thanks to Adam & Mouette at Cooroy Car Parts and Allan for organising the Noosa Country Show Classic Car Show. Not a thing can be done about the weather - it is what it is.
